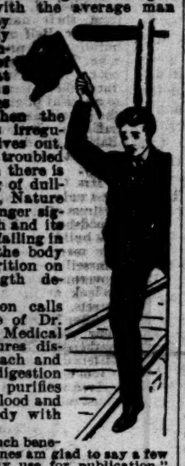
DANGER SIGNALS.



No engineer would be mad enough to run by the flag which signaled danger. It is different with the average man or woman. They attempt constantly to run by the danger signals of Nature and that attempt costs thousands of lives every year. When the appetite becomes irregular or entirely gives out, when sleep is troubled and broken, when there is a constant feeling of dullness and languor, Nature is hoisting the danger signal. The stomach and its allied organs are failing in their work and the body is losing the nutrition on which its strength depends.

Such a condition calls for a prompt use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, purifies and enriches the blood and builds up the body with sound, solid flesh.

"I have had so much benefit from your medicines am glad to say a few words that you may use for publication," writes Mrs. J. R. Downes, Crystal Lake, Conn. "Had been troubled with a complication of diseases for over two years, but kidneys and liver bothered me most. Some of my worst ailments were headache, frequent pains around heart and under right shoulder-blade. My hands and feet were cold nearly all the time, and I had such chilliness between shoulders. Some days cared but little for food; I lost flesh; felt so tired and miserable it seemed I couldn't do any housework. Took medicine from my physician, but received no benefit. Bought a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and after taking it I felt so much better we determined to give it a fair trial. Appetite soon improved and gradually the disorders disappeared until now I am well."

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, innoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect."

HORRORS OF ODESSA

A tour of Odessa and part of the suburbs yesterday found all quiet. Whole rows of shops that were pillaged have been boarded up. The poorer Jewish quarters suffered worst and the principal streets, with few exceptions, were untouched. Russian shops are marked with crosses painted on the shutters and the private houses with ikons so as to protect them from the mobs.

Peasants armed with knives and scythes tried to enter the city Saturday to loot the place, but they were driven back by the soldiers.

The casualties in Saturday's disturbances exceed 140, and those of the preceding three days, which have been verified, number nearly 5,600.

The latest accounts of the devastation in the Jewish quarter add horror to the situation. Besides numerous mills, all the bakeries, shops and nearly 600 homes have been destroyed. The Jews killed in every instance were treated with revolting barbarity. Heads were battered with hammers, nails were driven into the bodies, eyes were gouged out and ears severed. Many bodies were disemboweled, and in some cases petroleum was poured over the sick found hiding in cellars and they were burned to death.

It is alleged that the police and soldiers everywhere marched at the head of mobs, inciting them to destroy the Jews by crying, "The Jews have killed our Emperor," and similar expressions. While the mob were engaged in the slaughter the soldiers busied themselves pillaging the cash and jewels leaving, the household goods to the mobs. The owners of many houses got rid of the bandits by payment of a ransom to the police. The police prevented any one from arresting the looters and prevented also the Red Cross workers from aiding the wounded, actually going upon those engaged in this work.

A band of students removed much of the stolen property to the university, whither also they took 100 dead bodies of anti-Jewish demonstrators, whose relatives yesterday besieged the university, claiming the corpses and demanding the release of those who were confined in the university. They threaten otherwise to burn the university and kill the professors. Methods were therefore taken to transfer these prisoners to a regular prison.

The Odessa correspondent of the London Standard, under date of November 5, at 5 a. m., sends further sensational accounts of the riots there. He says: "There have been more horrifying massacrees and fiendish cruelties, but the districts where these took place are now cordoned by troops. Probably the total killed will number 3,500 and the wounded 12,000. In the suburb of Moldovanka alone 1,000 victims remained in the streets from midnight until noon, when the authorities hastened to collect and bury the bodies in great pits, in order to conceal their numbers. Two private doctors attended more than 300 children of both sexes, who had been horribly gashed about the head and shoulders with sabers. Heaping insult on injury, the civil governor yesterday, when the butchery had ended, asked the householders to subscribe $100,000 to pay the police an increase of wages."

Resignation of City Officials.

The town of Kenner, La., near New Orleans, is now in the hands of Sheriff Marrero, the mayor, councilmen, and other town officials having resigned as the result of the exposures in regard to the recent murders of colored people there. Mr. Cowan, son of the Mayor, having turned State's evidence and confessed, the local judge and town constable who were under arrest, told the story of the outrage.

The constable, one Ledoux, had a personal difficulty with a colored man named Andrew Jackson. He, accompanied by Judge Adams, the mayor's son, and a fourth man named Brown, visited Jackson's restaurant, where the party opened fire on the establishment without previous notice, killing or wounding five colored persons, including Jackson, and a woman named Smallwood. The latter was killed instantly.

The murders were hushed up, a coroner's jury gave a noncommittal verdict, and the news was given out two days afterward that the shooting was due to a row in the Jackson place. The sheriff, however, interfered, convicted some of the principal town officials, and brought out the truth.

The resignation of the mayor, council, and other town officials is due to a feeling that they are responsible in part for the condition of affairs in Kenner, and they should have been able to bring out the truth without the aid of the sheriff.

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards, of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say nothing of the suffering." This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

PAINFUL PERIODS

Suggestions How to Find Relief from Such Suffering.

While no woman is entirely free from periodical suffering, it does not seem to be the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely. Menstruation is a severe strain on a woman's vitality. If it is painful or irregular something is wrong which should be set right or it will lead to a serious derangement of the whole female organism.

More than fifty thousand women have testified in grateful letters to Mrs. Pinkham that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound overcomes painful and irregular menstruation.

It provides a safe and sure way of escape from distressing and dangerous weaknesses and diseases.

The two following letters tell so convincingly what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do for women, they cannot fail to bring hope to thousands of sufferers.

Miss Nellie Holmes of 540 N. Davision Street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Your medicine is indeed an ideal medicine for women. I suffered misery for years with painful periods, headaches, and bearing-down pains. I consulted two different physicians but failed to get any relief. A friend from the East advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and no longer suffer as I did before. My periods are natural; every ache and pain is gone, and my general health is much improved. I advise all women who suffer to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Tillie Hart, of Larimore, N. D., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I might have have been spared many months of suffering and pain had I only known of the efficacy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound sooner; for I have tried so many remedies without help.

"I dreaded the approach of my menstrual period every month, as it meant so much pain and suffering for me, but after I had used the Compound two months I became regular and natural and am now perfectly well and free from pain at my monthly periods. I am very grateful for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound rests upon the well-earned gratitude of American women.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating, (or flatulency), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat you with kindness and her advice is free. No woman ever regretted writing her and she has helped thousands. Address Lynn, Mass.

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's Ills.

Reign of Terror.

A reign of terror prevails in Middlesboro, Ky., that threatens to rival in violence the bloody feuds of Breathitt county. The Middlesboro militia company spent Sunday afternoon in the mountains after a lawless gang of outlaws, said to be headed by Frank Ball, wanted for the murder of John Boier, a barber. Ball is reported to have with him at least forty men, who intend to resist his arrest.

Four miles from Middlesboro, the soldiers yesterday attacked a blind tiger and riddled it with bullets. They succeeded in capturing nine of the men. Returning to town, a roll call of the company showed the absence of three men, whose whereabouts are not known.

Last night the town was comparatively quiet, but all telegraph wires have been cut, and the only news sent out is by telephone.

Gov. Beckham has been asked to send more soldiers, and another company is expected today, as the local militiamen are worn out by constant duty of the past three days.

Secrecy is preserved by both citizens and soldiers, and it is reliably reported that the Western Union operator has been warned not to send out news of the disturbance to any newspapers.

But Few Are Free.

But few people are entirely free from indigestion at this season of the year. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is not only the best remedy to use because it digests what you eat but because it also enables the digestive apparatus to assimilate and transform all foods into tissue-building blood. Kodol relieves sour stomach, heart burn, belching, and all forms of Indigestion. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and save his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING. NOV. 6, 1905.

THE POLITICAL campaign in Virginia closes tonight, and the last act in the drama will be the casting of ballots to morrow when the voice of the people will indicate who are to be heads of affairs in the Old Dominion during the next four years. That the democratic ticket, headed by Messrs. Swanson and Ellyson, will have another walk-over is a forgone conclusion. While the campaign has been at times spirited, probably there never was a canvass conducted on more flimsy grounds than that upon which the oppponents of the democratic party have been posing. They have taken up the record of the powers that be, have examined it from every standpoint and have virtually found nothing upon whirh they could base an issue. Some of their champions have attempted to magnify mole hills into mountains, but democratic orators have brushed them away as chaff and held the republican platform up to just ridiclue. The advocates of Judge Lewis for Governor have labored under a hallucination that the Old Dominion, from a national standpoint, would shine forth as the noon day sun were he placed in the gubernatorial chair, and have prated much about Virginia taking her place in the march of progress of the twentieth century. The fact should be apparent to all that Virginia since she shook off the political menageries of by-gone years has forged ahead wonderfully, and her record during the past two decades is clean and bright, while prosperity has followed in the wake of honest government and the substantial conditions which have brought confidence in those at the helm of the Old Dominion. It is hoped that every democrat will cast his vote and that present condition be in no wise disturbed.

MR. J. B. HENDERSON, jr., erstwhile of Missouri, is the nominee of the republicans of the city and county of Alexandria, for the House of Delegates. That is he was put up for this position at a little meeting held in this city recently by order of the State chairman, Mr. Slemp, who directed that Mr. Henderson should not be opposed. Now it is not believed that Mr. Henderson is known by a dozen people in Alexandria, but because he would pay the price, Mr. Slemp let him have the nomination and orders his followers to vote for him over Mr. Caton, who has made one of the most faithful and efficient representatives Alexandria has had in the House for many years. It is said that Mr. Henderson's candidacy was brought about by "his people," who wished to get him into politics and who selected the Alexandria district because it was "easy." That they properly "sized up" the republicans of this district is apparent by the ease with which the nomination was secured, but "his people" will find out tomorrow that there is a big difference between securing a republican nomination in Alexandria and being elected to office by the people.

CHICAGO ministers and pulpit orators are soon to see themselves as other people see them. Five critics who consider themselves able to appreciate the latter day sermon, are to visit as many churches one Sunday each month, listen, take notes, and eventually report to an audience in the Grand Opera House what they think of the discourses. This is to be called a gospel clearing house and is the scheme of the Spencer Whitman Center, which has engaged a down-town theater for each Sunday morning. The center will start its church next Sunday morning with a lecture by Hugh O. Pentecost, of New York city. Should this movement spread to all cities the clergy will find coals upon their backs when they realize that their discourses are to be subjected to impartial criticism. It will doubtless result in much good, as under present conditions few care to take open issue with gentlemen of the cloth, and the latter will become more studious and endeavor to make their discourses as interesting as possible to their hearers.

SOME of the republican papers are boldly asserting that the young democrats of Virginia, failing to see any future for themselves in the administration of the democracy, are avowing their purpose to link their political fortunes with the republican party. The republicans may hug this fond delusion to their souls, for while many of our young men think it a hard thing for them to be outside the army of those who enjoy the patronage of the government, we can boldly declare that while the south has a large negro contingent with which to deal, there can never be any doubt as to how the southern man votes. The time has not arrived when any Virginian will sell his birthright for a mess of pottage, however highly seasoned, and no honied words, nor specious arguments to prove "that negro supremacy is practically removed" can affect the honor and integrity of our southern men. The same reason for a "solid south" holds good now as it did forty years ago.

SENATOR MARTIN, who is in Richmond to assist the campaign work of the democratic party, makes this statement:

At the November election, 1904, with a total vote of 128,528, Parker's majority over Roosevelt was 32,768. At the August primary 83,206 democratic votes, in the aggregate, were cast for the candidates for governor. Assuming that Mr. Swanson will receive that vote and conceding to Judge Lewis as large a vote as was cast for Roosevelt last year, 47,880, Mr. Swanson's majority would be 35,326 in a total vote of 131,086."

If all democrats who voted in the primary, and thereby pledged themselves to vote in the regular election for the democratic nominees, will keep that pledge and discharge its obligations, the democratic ticket will be elected by a handsome majority. It is most important that every democrat should vote.

A COLORED Baptist convention held in Richmond recently set about to organize a negro party and to stay away from the polls on election day. The project is supported in all directions, and letters received in Richmond state that the number of colored men to vote tomorrow will be much smaller than usual. Since Judge Lewis and other republican office seekers are proclaiming from the stump that "negro supremacy is practically removed in Virginia," many colored man see no use in longer voting for that party, while others, it is said, are at last beginning to realize that the democrats are their best friends, and will tomorrow vote against Judge Lewis.

SENATOR GORMAN, of Maryland, continues his fight for white supremacy in his State, but he has the united strength of the republican party against him, added to which is the opposition of many men heretofore in his own party who have been elevated to high positions by democratic votes. Such men call themselves "independent democrats," but in truth they are deserters, or republicans at heart, and should never again be trusted or honored by the democratic voters. The Senator has a herculean task before him and is in the right and the hope, of the southern people are for his success.

AN ARGUMENT is being used against Mr. Caton in the county to the effect that should he be re-elected he would have a large part of the county annexed to the city! And there are numbers of people in the county fools enough to be gulled by such statements. Still, such arguments should not injure Mr. Caton in Alexandria city.

LET every nominee on the democratic ticket do his utmost tomorrow to bring out a full vote. This should apply to candidates for both State and city offices.

EVERY democrat should see that his vote and that of his neighbor is cast for the full democratic ticket tomorrow.

ONCE more unto the breach, fellow democrats.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 4.

Oscar Straus, of New York, called upon the President this morning to consult with him as to whether there was any possibility of action which would result in a mitigation of the horrors connected with the massacre of the Jews in Russia. The President stated that he had been watching with the deepest concern the reports of these massacres and that he had been appealed to within the last few weeks to try to take some action, not only on behalf of the Jews in Russia, but on behalf of the Americans, Poles and Finns. The President does not see that any action can be taken by this government at present that would be of any benefit to the sufferers for whom he feels the keenest sympathy.

Her foot slipping as she stepped into one of the elevators of the State, War and Navy Department building this morning, Miss Margaret McIlvaine, a char woman, was almost instantly killed. Her head was caught between the ascending cab and the top of the door. No blame is attached to the operator. The authorities are making a thorough investigation to ascertain whether the elevator was in proper order.

Senator Cullom of Illinois, chairman of the foreign relations committee of the Senate, called on the President this morning to lodge complaint against the Cuban government for not keeping its promise to maintain the city of Havana in a sanitary condition. He said that he had been informed by a number of business men that the Cubans have built no sewerage system since the American evacuation and the American residents of the city fear that a yellow fever epidemic will be the consequence.

Arguments were delivered today in the U. S. Supreme Court by counsel for Mrs. Mary Mabel Rogers, convicted in Burlington county, Vermont, for the murder of her husband. Mrs. Rogers lawyers urged a reversal of the ruling by the United States district court of Vermont, denying a writ of habeas corpus, on the ground that the woman is subjected to solitary confinement and deprived of her liberty in Vermont without statutory authority and without a sentence of the court directing such punishment. It was further argued that the Supreme Court of Vermont, having taken jurisdiction of a trial, had failed to comply with the law in respect to ordering a stay and in fixing a new date for the execution of Mrs. Rogers. The subsequent action of the governor in fixing the execution for December, 8, 1905, the lawyers asserted, was not supported by any law and consequently such execution will be without due process of law. It was further alleged that the governor had set the date, while habeas corpus proceedings were pending in federal courts and it was argued that the governor's action is consequently null and void. Under the argument against solitary confinement, Mrs. Rogers' counsel showed that the Vermont statute limits the term to three months preceeding execution. Mrs. Rogers had been in solitary confinement for six and one-half months when the present appeal was taken.

The appeal of John W. Ballman, the Cincinnati broker, on the writ of error to his original commitment under the contempt proceedings of failure to produce books in the federal grand jury investigation of the Germania National Bank, of that city, was set today for hearing in the Supreme Court of the United States on November 27.

Missouri's eight hour law was held constitutional in the Supreme Court of the United States today, the judgment of the Missouri Supreme Court in the case of Harry J. Cantwell and others against the State of Missouri being affirmed. No opinion was read.

The complete records of the court-martial in the case of the Commander Lucien Young, of the Bennington, growing out of the explosion on board that vessel which resulted in the loss of so many lives, was received this morning at the Navy Department by the Judge Advocate General. It is reported that the findings of the court are that Commander Young did not exercise as careful supervision over the engineering department of his ship as he should have done; that he was therefore guilty of contributory negligence but not in such degree as to warrant his dismissal, and that he should therefore be severely reprimanded.

It is rumored that Congressman Littlefield, of Maine, will soon remove to New York.

Bishop Van de Vyver spent yesterday and last night at St. Mary's parsonage in this city, and preached at both masses yesterday morning. He also confirmed a class numbering over one hundred. The Bishop after the 10:30 o'clock mass pronounced the pontifical blessing. He visited St. Mary's Academy this morning and later left for Richmond.

Messrs. Thomas Smith, B. Wheatley and Samuel Haslett have gone 12 miles below Fredericksburg on a gunning trip

Dr. C. E. Outcalt, who has recently been confined to the house by illness, has been directed by his physician to spend about a week out of the city during his convalesence.

A writ of certiorari filed on behalf of the Pressed Steel Car Company by Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, was overruled today by the Supreme Court of the United States. The Pressed Steel Car Company claimed all the patents and inventions evolved by John Hanson, one of its $10,000 a year employes. The lower courts decided for Hanson, and the Sudreme Court will not review the proceedings.

The United States was refused a writ of certiorari in the Supreme Court of the United States today in the case of the government against William B. Kirk, of Syracuse, N. Y., who was one of Gaynor's sureties in the Gaynor-Greene frauds at Savannah, Ga. The government obtained a judgment of $40,000 against Kirk in Georgia, but Kirk obtained an injunction against the execution of the judgment The denial of the writ closes one phase of the case in Kirk's favor. A government appeal on a writ of error is still pending.

News of the Day.

Baron Speck von Sternburg on Saturday began negotiations with the State Department for a new trade treaty with Germany.

A tornado struck Mountain View, Oklahoma, Saturday, killing several persons and injuring many others and damaging much property.

The Flat Top field Saturday suffered another disastrous explosion in one of its mines, located at Vivian, W. Va., and seven miners have succumbed to their injuries, and more are expected to die.

James W. Alexander, former president of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, is so ill that he has been removed to a sanitarium at Deerfield, Mass., and is under the care of specialists.

Rev. Dr. Ingram N. W. Irvine, lately deposed from the Protestant Episcopal ministry, was made a priest of the Holy Orthodox Church of Russia in New York yesterday. He was made a deacon on Saturday.

A Southern Pacific passenger train dashed into the rear of a train of tourist cars at Santa Margaritta station, California, Saturday, the engine plowing its way through one of the cars. Nineteen persons were hurt.

Believing he was shooting at a burglar, Hayden R. Craft, a hardware merchant of Uniontown, Pa., killed his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Coddington, at their home yesterday. When he discovered what he had done, Mr. Craft collapsed, and last night was in the hospital in a critical condition.

Sixteen million dollars will be necessary to complete the engineering work of fortifications of the seacoasts of the United States under the plans of the Endicott board, according to the report of Brig.-Gen. Alexander Mackenzie, Chief of Engineers. There has already been appropriated for this purpose $28,693,484.

Three children are dead and thirteen people are injured, one fatally, as the result of an explosion at Ishpeming, Mich., yesterday, which completely destroyed the Miners' National Bank. A gas leakage in the basement of the bank building was primarily responsible for the explosion and loss of life. Two workmen went into the basement about 9 o'clock to make repairs. They struck a match and the flames ignited the gas in the basement, a tremendous explosion following.

The friction caused in the President's Cabinet by the recent order directing Cabinet members to refrain from discussing Cabinet meetings with representatives of the newspapers, has, it is said, been removed by the understanding of the President's position with respect to the matter and the purposes he seeks to accomplish. The restraint placed upon Cabinet members applies only to matters under consideration by the Cabinet, and not in such shape as to admit of an official announcement, and questions of policy, which have not been definitely decided. All the members of the Cabinet acknowledge the propriety of this stand.

In Boston late Saturday afternoon Dr. Percy D. McLeod, held at the Charles street jail on a charge of performing an illegal operation on Susan Geary, was released on $20,000 bail. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mrs. Dean, who was in charge of the house in which the victim of the "suit-case" tragedy sought shelter. What is confidently believed to be the head of Susanna Geary, the dress suit case victim, was recovered in a leather handbag from the bottom of the harbor in Boston yesterday. The head completes the body of the girl. The trunk was found on September 21, and the limbs were picked up October 27.

Virginia News.

The Virginia conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South will meet in annual session Wednesday in Danville.

Capt. Edwin M. Gray, the first Chief of Police of Norfolk after the close of the civil war, died Saturday, aged 74 years.

R. T. Purkins has been appointed postmaster to succeed Julia P. Purkins, resigned, at King George, King George county.

Mrs. Mary A. James, widow of Gordon James, died yesterday at her home, near Summit, Spottsylvania county, aged 70 years.

George W. Langhorne, aged 67 years, a tobacconist and a member of the well-known Virginia family of Langhorne, died in Lynchburg suddenly last night of heart disease.

John Vaughan, a prominent Bedford county farmer, his wife, and their twelve year-old niece, were killed yesterday in a runaway accident, on the mountain road leading to the Peaks of Otter.

Rev. Dr. J. Horace Lacey, formerly of Clarksville, was formally installed as pastor of the Presbyterian church, Winchester, yesterday morning before a large congregation, Rev. Dr. James R. Graham, pastor emeritus and one of the oldest and best beloved Presbyterian divines in Virginia, presiding.

Charles Stafford, about 35 years old, a fish dealer in the Norfolk city market, committed suicide Saturday by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. The cause of the deed which was committed in the woman's home was a quarrel with Marie Wilson, with whom the man had been intimate for sometime.

Both the Middlesex and Grafton hounds yesterday took a holiday in the American-English hound trials after the hard run yesterday, when hounds and horses from the Upperville neighborhood covered fully 50 miles. Today the the Middlesex hounds met at Middleburg, and the covers on Duffy's farm were drawn. Mr. Smith, the master of the Grafton hounds, in celebration of his fortieth birthday entertained the visiting sportsmen quartered at Middleburg and Upperville.

R. Monroe Butler was on Saturday afternoon shot and instantly killed by C. C. Brown at Brown's house near Iudika, about ten miles from Suffolk. Both men were drunk, when an argument started and wound up with the above results. Brown is a lumberman of Isle of Wight county, and Butler, whose parents reside in Suffolk, worked for him. Brown was immediately put under arrest, and is now in jail pending a verdict from the coroner's jury. Both parties are white, and the murdered man is single.

Mayor Carlton McCarthy, the Richmond "live wire," who made a speech for the democrats at Keysville Saturday night, was escorted to divine services yesterday morning by an old deacon of the church, who, being called upon to pray, thanked God for all the good that has ever come to Keysville, including Mayor McCarthy's excoriation of the republicans and begged the Lord to get on the side of the democrats in the State election. The prayer is said to have been one of the most remarkable petitions ever delivered from a house of worship.

LULL IN THE STORM.

There is not the slightest doubt but that the Russian press and people distrust the Emperor's promise of freedom. The revolutionary movement is only halted pending further action by the government. The Emperor and Witte realize the situation.

An official communication points out that the publication of the Emperor's manifesto of October 30 has not yet pacified the country, and declares it indispensable that all classes of the population shall refrain from actions which might render the situation more acute and to exercise the greater circumspection in relations between the different classes of the population in order to avoid conflicts and disorders, which the government must suppress to insure immunity of the person and property of all citizens in Russia of all nationalities and religions.

The manifesto is ordered sent to the heads of all administrations.

The rather faint praise with which the leading newspapers, appearing for the first time in over a week, greet the new constitutional regime, indicates distrust in the government's sincerity, but all assume that this sounds the knell of autocratic power.

By agreement all the newspapers lead their columns with the announcement of the freedom of the press, and they have banded themselves together to hereafter defy all arbitrary attempts at censorship. Their editorials manifest little spirit of gratitude to the Emperor.

A most urgent demand is made for the immediate removal of General Trepoff.

Fatal encounters between the soldiers and the populace and anti-Jewish excesses are reported from many places in the provinces. On Saturday and yesterday at Kremenchug 20 persons were killed and 80 injured. At Kutais a military train was wrecked and nine soldiers were killed or injured on both sides.

At Berdicheff several persons were killed or injured, and at Minsk serious rioting arose through the troops preventing a meeting of citizens. A hundred were killed and 600 wounded.

The massacre and pillage of the Jews continues at Kishineff.

Yesterday passed in St. Petersburg without disorder or bloodshed. The social democrats and revolutionists had planned a mammoth demonstration in connection with the funerals of those killed in last week's riots. Late Saturday night, however, when it became known that General Trepoff would not permit a big demonstration threatening disorder, and that the mayor had issued a proclamation saying that the streets were no place for the airing of political grievances, the socialist leaders called off their plans. Accordingly the funerals were held in private and workmen attended memorial services in the various mills.

Great patriotic demonstrations were held in the streets of Warsaw yesterday by crowds estimated at 200,000 persons. Processions, headed by clergy and singing "God save Poland," paraded the principal streets.

Today's Telegraphic News

Between 30,000 and 40,000 Jews Massacred.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 6.—The correspondent of the Publishers Press today interviewed a prominent liberal official who said: "The attempts to fasten the blame of the past week's anti-Jews massacres on the bureaucracy and the rough element of the towns where the murders were committed, are unsatisfactory. The whole Russian nation must shoulder the responsibility, because public sentiment favored these massacres or at least regarded them with indifference. Every one in Russia regards the Jews as legitimate prey. When the full reports are available it will be shown that between 30,000 and 40,000 Jews have killed or injured, while there has not been a voice in all Russia raised in protest, and not an authoritative word said in condemnation of these massacres. This is even more horrible than the massacres themselves, for it really presents doubts as to whether the Russian people can successfully run their own government. Certainly the Jews cannot hope to gain freedom under a liberal Russian government unless they fight for it just as the liberals are fighting the autocracy for their own liberty."

France and Venezuela.

Paris, Nov. 6.—The answer given by President Castro of Venezuela in the dispute with the French government, which was delivered in a note to United States Minister Russell, who is in charge of the matter, has not given satisfaction here. Venezuela expressed its willingness to withdraw its note concerning M. Taigny, the French charge d'affaires at Caracas, if the French government likewise would recall its request that Venezuela withdraw that part of its note which gave notice that Venezuela would not treat further with M. Taigny until he apologized for his statement that the French cable company should be treated unjustly. The government considers that the settlement of the question has not been advanced through this note, but the negotiations will continue as the tone of the message is more courteous than has previously been employed, and France does not wish to resort to coercion while any hope of amicable settlement remains. The withdrawal of President Castro's original note is still deemed necessary as well as that full justice shall be done the French cable company.

King Alfonso in Berlin.

Berlin, Nov. 6.—King Alfonso, of Spain, arrived here this afternoon, on a visit to the German emperor. This is his first formal visit since his accession to the Spanish throne, and he was received with great pomp and ceremony. A determined effort will now be made to detach Spain from England and France and to gain Spanish support for Germany. The personal element plays a great part in international European politics, and the striking personality of the Kaiser counts for a great deal. The Kaiser will exert all his personal fascination in order to gain the sympathies of King Alfonso and thereby influence the foreign policy of Spain in a direction favorable to Germany. The development of events will show whether the Kaiser meets with success, or whether King Alfonso will remain proof against the personal allurements of the elder monarch.

Polander Murdered.

New York, Nov. 6.—Because a party of four Poles, living in the tenement at No. 56 Canal street, while playing cards early today put one of their number out of the game for abusiveness, the expelled man shot all the others, killing one of them and probably fatally wounding another. The murderer, who is described to the police as Tony Miro, known in the neighborhood as "Tony the Giant," escaped. The murdered man is Andrew Ingini, who lived on the fourth floor of the house. He was about to be married and had furnished rooms there in anticipation of his bride. Iguance Poutriwitch was shot twice by Miro, one bullet hitting him in the left shoulder, and another in the chest over the heart. Jos. Shipley, who accusses Miro of doing the shooting, was shot in the right shoulder.

Hundreds of Peasants Burned to Death.

Berlin, Nov. 6.—Kleine Journal says that several hundred peasants were burned to death in the Russian village of Jedozvograd, in the province of the Don, through the firing by Cossacks of a shed in which they were holding a political meeting. Peasants to the number of 1,000 had gathered in the shed to discuss the situation in Russia. The prefect was unable to suppress the meeting and gave his approval to the firing of the building. The whole structure was blaze in a moment after the torches were applied, and the peasants in a wild panic tried to get out. About 200 of them succeeded in escaping while the rest were burned while trying to fight their way through the single narrow exit

Steamer Aground.

New York, Nov. 6.—A cablegram received here today from Copenhagen, Denmark, stated that the steamer Hellig Olav, of the Scandinavian-American line, struck bottom on the Middle Ground, in the Kategat during a storm this morning, and was so badly damaged that she was run ashore to prevent her from sinking. Her passengers were transferred to the steamer Koch, which carried them to port. The Hellig Olav was bound from New York for Copenhagen, and carried 46 cabin and 150 steerage passengers.

Political Conditions in New York.

New York, Nov. 6—The campaign for the mayoralty closed last night with a democratic meeting in the Hippodrome, and a municipal ownership meeting in Madison Square Garden. Each place was packed with people and thousands were turned away, unable to obtain admission. Comptroller Grout estimates that McClellan would have 20,000 in the city. Mr. Hulpin, president of the republican county committee, gives Ivins, 227,000; Hearst, 204,000 and McClellan 170,000 votes. The Hearst managers claim that their candidate will receive 300,000 votes.

Every Ounce You Eat.

Every ounce of food you eat that fails to digest does a pound of harm. It turns the entire meal into poison. This not only deprives the blood of the necessary tissue-building material, but it poisons it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant. It digests the food regardless of the condition of the stomach. It allows that organ to rest and get strong again. Relieves Belching, Heart Burn, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Palpitation of the Heart, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Collision of Freight Trains.

Washington, Pa., Nov. 6.—Two freight trains came together head-on this morning in the Brady tunnel, on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad about a mile east of Washington. The engines were both wrecked and all traffic was stopped. Joseph Keating, of Pittsburg, was killed, Martin O'Donnell and L. Clair May, engineer, and fireman of the other train were badly wounded. The wreck is thought to be due to a mistake of orders. The body of Keating at the last report, had not been removed from the wreckage. It is feared another body may also be in the debris.

The Death of Mrs. Todd.

New York, Nov. 6.—Coroner Dugan, of Philadelphia, made a request of Coroner Scholer, over the telephone today, that the vital organs of the late Mrs. Todd be forwarded to Philadelphia. Coroner Dugan stated that he desired to have the organs for the purpose of determining the exact cause of death, and in his opinion, the plan would eliminate all controversy regarding jurisdiction. Coroner Scholer said after receiving the request that he would not object to such procedure provided there could be no legal objections.

Conditions in Russia.

Odessa, Nov. 6.—Everything is quiet in the city today at this writing. The shops are open and business is being resumed. The city is fast assuming its normal aspect. Vessels are being loaded expeditiously.

Helsingfors, Finland, Nov. 6, 1:40 p. m.—The general strike which has been in progress here came to an end today. The city is quiet and is assuming its normal aspect.

Suicide of Pittsburg Merchant.

Fredericksburg, Va., Nov. 6.—Mr. Alexander M. Black, aged 56 years, a wealthy retired merchant of Pittsburg, Pa., committed suicide by drowning himself in the Rappahannock river here last night. Of late he had made several attempts to end his life. His remains will be shipped to his former home in Pittsburg where he has relatives. He came to this section several years ago for his health.

Storm on Lake Erie.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 6.—In answer to signals of distress from an unknown steamer seven miles off this harbor, this morning, the life-saving crew at the local station put out in an endeavor to reach the vessel in a heavy sea. A severe storm swept over Lake Erie last night, and also touching others of the Great Lakes.

Killed in Collision.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Two persons dead and three injured is the reported result of a collision at 7 o'clock this morning between a Grand Trunk passenger train, and a street car near Blue Island. Motorman McLeod is fatally hurt. The street car was filled with workmen.

Conditions in Warsaw.

Warsaw, Poland, Nov. 6.—The situation here is very unsatisfactory. There is a great lack of food and supplies, meat, bread and coal being very hard to get. The general strike is still in full force.

Will Demand a Plebiscite.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 6.—The union of unions has resolved to demand a national plebiscite on the question of complete political amnesty which it favors.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Deputy U. S. Marshal John J. Garside who has been in the employ of the government for over a decade, ended his life by shooting himself in the postoffice building in Newark, N. J., today. Ill health and an affection of the eyes, are said to be the motives.

After having wildly rushed through nearly every room in her home in Harrisburg, Pa., screaming for help, her clothing in flames Anna Lawyer this morning saved her life by wrapping a heavy overcoat about her body extinguishing the blaze. Her body is terribly burned.

The death yesterday of Peter F. Durant, an aged inmate of the Vermont state asylum for the insane at Waterbury, is said to have been the result of an assault by two male nurses last Tuesday. An autopsy shows his breast bone and four-ribs were broken.

Wm. J. Lemoyne, the veteran actor, died at the home of a friend this morning at Inwood-on-the-Hudson. His death was due to Bright's disease.

Ex-Speaker Henderson's Condition

Dubuque, Iowa, Nov. 6.—News of the death of David B. Henderson, former Sperker of the House of Representatives may be expected at any time. He has been taken to Mercy Hospital. His mind has failed him completely. From his wife it is learned that the change was made to give the patient all care. His physicians this morning announce no change in the patient's condition.

Letter to S. G. Boothe.

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: We know what the paints are all made of, you know; we have to. In Wilson, N. C., are two dealers. One of 'em thinks he can't sell paint for more than $1 a gallon; the other won't have such stuff in his store—sells Devoe lead-and-zinc, of course. The $1 paint is adulterated 76 per ct.; Devoe is all lead and zinc and linseed oil, with as little good dryer as possible. A gallon Devoe has in it a little more paint than four gallons of the other. A gallon Devoe will cover as much as four of the other. Who wants to pay wages for painting four gallons for one? How much is Devoe lead-and-zinc worth in that town?

Yours truly,

THE ELECTION TOMORROW.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Nov. 6.—There has never been a more quiet State election held in Virginia than the one to come off tomorrow, unless all signs fail. The smallest amount of interest prevails here, and it is believed difficulty will be experienced in getting the vote out. The democrats have nothing to fear but apathy anywhere, except in the Ninth district, but they are not sure of a full vote in eastern Virginia. The final claims of party managers place Swanson's majority at 30,000 and give the democrats a safe control of both branches of the legislature.

Female Coxey Army.

London, Nov. 6.—Six thousand women recruited from the slums of London are preparing to march through the city this afternoon to Whitehall, where a deputation of eighteen from their number will be received by Premier Balfour in the local government building, and present a demand for immediate relief by the government for the starving poor. The arrival of cold weather has reduced the thousands of persons out of work to a pitiful plight. The women will ask that the government extend material aid to such sufferers. Following its meeting with Mr. Balfour, the deputation will return and make a report as to what he says to the female army.

Mrs. Carey, one of the delegation, declared that unless something is done to relieve the distress of the starving people there will be bloodshed. While the deputation was inside the building talking with Premier Balfour the marchers waited outside and sang the Marseillaise and jeered at the clerks in the government offices who crowded the windows to look at the multitude of women in the streets.

After leaving the building where Mr. Balfour received the delegation the women gathered in Westminister Chapel where they listened to violent speeches made by Wm. Crookes and others. Their remarks were received with wild cheers and shouts of "we must follow the example of the Russians."

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 6.—Commission houses were sellers in the first hour, and some losses were sustained, but support appeared at once and the market steadied. The trading was influenced almost wholly by the election uncertainty and to the money situation, the call rate rising to 7 per cent. The tone of the market, although not weak, is feverish and uncertain.

In the last half hour the market continued irregular, some stocks receding again toward the early figures, while others advanced fractionall, including Tennessee Coal and Iron.

ELECTIONS TOMORROW.

Elections will be held tomorrow in seven States and six of the larger cities. In Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Virginia and Ohio a governor and other State officers are to be chosen, and in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Nebraska, minor State officers, judges or regents of the State university. In New York, Indianapolis, Louisville, Salt Lake and San Francisco, a mayor and other city officers, and in Chicago sanitary trustees and judges are to be voted for.

The democrats and populists have fused in Nebraska, the republicans and democrats against the union labor party in San Francisco, and the republicans and other parties against the democrats in Louisville.

In Pennsylvania there has been a miscellaneous indorsement of the republican and democratic candidates.

No federal elections will be held and no national issues are involved in any of of the campaigns. But it is doubtful if at any election in recent years have the people been so intensely aroused and been stirred so deeply as during the campaign that ends tonight.

Party politics have been almost completely banished in several other States. In none of them where the fights are thickest is the republican party making a clear-cut fight against the democratic party.

In several case it is the fight of honesty against graft of corruption. It is an attempt of the people to regain control of their government. Larger questions than the mere men on the ballot are involved. No less interesting than the state fights are the contests in the cities of New York, Philadelphia, Indianapolis, Louisville, Salt Lake and San Francisco.

SENATOR GORMAN.

Senator Gorman, in an interview in Baltimore yesterday replied to Governor Warfield s statement, in which the Governor reiterated his opposition to the sufferage amendment. In the course of the interview Senator Gorman said:

"Mr. Warfield was elected Governor upon the distinct issue of eliminating the negro voter. He is keenly conscious of that fact, and he realizes the unfortunate position in which he stands.

"The Governor has satisfied himself that upon this question he is Alpha and Omega. This is a most unfortunate and dangerous conclusion for any leader of his party to reach. 'I am the party. I am the State,' does not sound well. I think such an assumption indefensible.

"When will we again elect three-fifths of the members of the General Assembly? The Governor knows the time is now, and that if the amendment is not adopted it fastens upon the State for a long time unlimited negro suffrage.

"The Governor knows that if the amendment can be defeated this can only come by the misuse of the great power intrusted to him by the democratic party.

"I think the white men of Maryland, without regard to party, have determined to settle this question, and by fair and lawful methods, so I look for the adoption of this amendment.

"It is the only time in his whole career that I have ever known the Governor to insist on his own judgment being superior to all of his party fellows, and I know of no man in the State who has more strongly advocated party discipline or who has more vigorously denounced party insubordination.

"It is plain to me that he has made a fatal mistake in abandoning the well-beaten path of independence of thought, coupled with unity in all party action, that has brought such great success to him and me It has given to both of us station and prominence probably beyond our deserts."

Horse-trader Murdered.

In a quarrel Saturday night, on the road between Littleton and Vaughn, N. C., Garfield Hicks, a negro, killed W. G. King by cutting his throat from ear to ear. King was a well-known horse trader. On Saturday night, while he was returning from Littleton to his home at Vaughn, he met Hicks driving in the opposite direction. It is not known just how the quarrel began, but after it started Hicks, who, it is alleged, had been drinking, jumped from his cart and attacked King with a razor, killing him. Hicks' victim lived three minutes after his throat was cut. The negro fled. John Barnes was a witness of the killing of King. He was on horseback and came up just as the negro was attacking King, but he was unable to capture the negro. Bloodhounds have been put on the trail and a large posse threatens a lynching if the negro is captured.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Transportation Service.

A year ago when only a single-track electric railway afforded transportation between Alexandria and Washington, much just complaint was heard, but there is now no longer anything to retard travel or the shipment of freight between the two cities. The electric railway is practically double-tracked, new motor cars have been purchased and are in operation, and many improvements have been made in the service. The new highway bridge is nearly completed, and when the approaches shall have been finished the efficiency of the electric railway will have been perfected.

Should any one prefer to ride on steam trains a number of such run between the two cities during the day and night, the fare upon them being the same as that on electric trains.

In addition to this changed order of things, the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company has placed upon the ferry route between Alexandria and Washington a large, powerful and swift steamer, built upon modern plans and fitted up luxuriously. The capacity of the steamer is much greater than that of any ferry boat that has heretofore appeared on the Potomac, while the comforts afforded are all that could be desired. In fact the steamer will bear comparison with any in use in the large cities. It is justly meeting with a generous patronage.

There is now a line of cabs (vehicles just out of the shop) which convey passengers to any part of the city at low rates. This enterprise is due to the Alexandria Transportation Company, and has met a long-felt want. These cabs meet boats as well as trains at the new depot, and transport passengers to and from both.

There is, therefore, no longer anything confronting Alexandria in the way of inefficient transportation; hence people can reside in this city and be employed in Washington without discomfort, as the rapidity with which they can pass between the two cities, as well as the comfort enjoyed on a luxurious steamer and fast trains will eliminate disagreeable features of travel heretofore in evidence.

Much has been said in recent years concerning the growth of Alexandria. It has ever been recognized that the most vital incentive to people living in this city would be rapid transportation. The electric trains are run close together; in fact during certain hours they enter and pass from the city in sections, while the new ferry steamer makes a round trip between Alexandria and Washington every hour during the day.

All interested in the city should strive to profit by the present order of things and vie in expanding the growth of Alexandria and its commerce.

River Notes.

The United States steamboat inspectors for this district are now reinspecting the steamers plying on the Potomac, under the recent order of Secretary Metcalf of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

Vessels going in and out of Maddox creek, in Virginia, one of the tributaries of the Potomac, have broken down the three buoys that mark the channel up to Wirt's and Massey's wharf. The officers of the river steamer have notified the United States lighthouse authorities that the buoys are missing, and asked that they be replaced as soon as it is practicable to do so.

The barge Farmer's Friend is being loaded with lumber for Fort Washington by Smoot & Co.

The barge Patuxent, from Severn river with sand to the Alexandria Glass Works, is being unloaded at DeW. Aitcheson's wharf.

The barge James E. Easton, which recently brought coal from Philadelphia to DeW. Aitcheson, will leave for the lower river where railroad ties will be loaded for Philadelphia.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning.

Charles Baltimore, colored, charged with trespassing upon the property of M. Schuler, was sent to jail for 90 days.

Rechabites.

The phenomenal growth of Perseverance Tent, No. 1098, I. O. R. has continued during the four months of its existence in this city, and it now numbers eighty-eight members and several new members will be initiated tonight. The members of Perserverance tent having voted a chief ruler's jewel to Mr. W. L. Griffin, of this city, High Chief Ruler Cordell will present the same to him at the meeting tonight. The committee on public service in the Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, November 26, will report much progress and encouragement for their work. Among those who will take part will be Rev. Mr. Richardson, of Richmond, and Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher and Capt. W. B. Smithers, of this city.

Mr. George Still of this city, an oiler of the Washington and Alexandria ferry steamer Woodbury, got caught in the machinery of the boat yesterday, severely injuring the index finger of his right hand. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital, Washington, where it is thought the mangled member will have to be amputated.

The Election.

The election for Governor, State and city officials will take place tomorrow. Polls will be opened in this city at sunrise, 6:32, and be closed at sunset, 4:54. The voting will be at the following places:

First ward—Elks' Hall.
Second ward—City Hotel building.
Third ward—Odd Fellows' Hall.
Fourth ward—Friendship engine house.

There seems to be some apathy concerning the election but it is hoped that this may pass away by tomorrow and that the full vote of the democratic party will be cast.

Victim of Foul Play.

A colored man, whose name is said to be Richard Mills, and who is supposed to have come from Spartanburg, S. C., died in a house on north Fairfax street, late yesterday afternoon, under circumstances which some think should be investigated. Mills was found by Policemen Lyles and Beach in a vacant shanty on Princess street, between Pitt and Royal streets, about 7 o'clock yesterday. He was asleep and his shoes were missing. When the officers aroused him he informed them that he had been drunk the night before and his manner indicated the fact. They warned him to return to the railroad camp at which he said he was employed and he promised to obey. He was later found by Officer Lyles in the house of Annie Brown, colored, in a dying condition, previous to which the woman had given him coffee and attempted to revive him.

Dr. W. R. Purvis, Coroner, today directed Dr. W. M. Smith to make an autopsy of the remains. The latter soon proceeded to do so when he discovered that Mills had been shot in the back with a .38-calibre revolver, and that the ball had passed through the right kidney and bowels. Upon the discovery efforts were immediately made to ascertain who had been with the deceased yesterday when it was learned that Samuel Murray, Lazarus Allen and William Fizier, all colored, were seen in his company. Acting Lieutenant Roberts soon arrested the trio and locked them up. Forty dollars and a watch were found on Allen. Dr. Purvis will hold an inquest tomorrow.

Prince Visits Mount Vernon.

Prince Louis of Battenburg today paid homage at the tomb of Washington. Accompanied by distinguished officials of the State, War and Navy Departments, he boarded the naval yacht Dolphin at the Washington navy yard for Mount Vernon at nine o'clock this morning. The programme included a two hours' visit at the home of the father of his country with luncheon aboard the Dolphin. The palace car "Mount Vernon" was used to transport the prince and some of his party back to Washington. The rest of the party came back aboard the Dolphin. The car passed through this city at 12:30 and made no stops. It was in charge of Conductor Crockett and Motorman Young. The prince visited the tomb of Washington and took away with him a branch of ivy that had grown on the wall of the mausoleum. After a tour of the grounds the prince visited the tomb where the old gardener gave him the ivy leaves. The prince thanked the old man for the gift and handed the branch to his orderly with instructions to preserve them carefully. In the afternoon Princes Louis and Alexander took luncheon with President Roosevelt at the White House. The prince will leave Washington this afternoon for Annapolis on a special train. He will be escorted thither by Rear Admiral Evans and Capt. Ryan, naval attache of the British Embassy. Arriving at Annapolis the prince will board his flagship, the Drake, then return to the Naval Academy, where he will be the guest of Rear Admiral Sands at dinner.

Water Company Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Alexandria Water Company was held today with Mr. Laurence Stabler in the chair. The reports of the officers were submitted, showing the affairs of the company to be in good condition and that the number of water consumers is steadily on the increase. The president's report showed that the closest attention had been paid to the quality of the water supplied during the year and every precaution taken to secure its purity. The superintendent's report showed that during the year seven squares of pipe had been laid in addition to the fifteen hundred feet run from Duke street extended to the new depot. The old board of directors was re-elected, viz: Walter Roberts, E. L. Daingerfield, G. S. French, Hubert Snowden, Worth Hulfish, M. A. Ahern and F. W. Lambert.

After the meeting of the stockholders the directors met and re-elected the old officers, viz: Walter Roberts, president; George Uhler, secretary and treasurer; Charles Power, superintendent, and James Eveleth, collector.

Circuit Court for the City.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

The fall term of the Circuit Court began today. The docket was called and cases set.

J. L. Loose vs. Southern Railway Company; case set for argument on demurrer for tomorrow.

I. M. Woods vs. Southern Railway Company; case set for argument on demurrer for Thursday.

M. F. Ticer vs. City Council, a suit to recover money paid to city for paving on King street; case passed by.

City Bank of New Haven, Conn., vs. Wm. Demaine; jury and case in progress.

A fire was discovered in the dining room of Mrs. Rudd's residence, northeast corner of Prince and Alfred streets, about 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The inmates of the house soon quenched the flames and prevented what might have resulted in a serious fire. No alarm was sounded.

No Poison in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

From Napier, New Zealand, Herald: Two years ago the Pharmacy Board of New South Wales, Australia, had an analysis made of all the cough medicines that they declared were entirely free from all poisons. This exception was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, made by the Chamberlain Medicine Company, Des Moines, Iowa, U. S. A. The absence of all narcotics makes this remedy the safest and best that can be had; and it is with a feeling of security that any mother can give it to her little ones. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is especially recommended by its makers for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. When taken in time it prevents pneumonia. This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Death of Mr. J. P. Wise.

Mr. Jacob Phillip Wise, aged 80 years, died at an early hour Friday morning at his residence, in Baltimore, after an illness of a few hours. His demise occurred exactly two months after the death of his wife, Mrs. Margaret Wise. Mr. Wise was a native of Germany, and went to Baltimore about 59 years ago and for a number of years conducted a tailoring establishment. He is survived by several children, among them Mr. Henry Wise of this city.

Steamer Well Patronized.

The vicinity of lower King street was animated throughout yesterday, the reproduction of scenes of past years being in evidence. The new ferryboat Woodbury was crowded on nearly every trip, while cabs were running to and from the slip at short intervals. Many Alexandrians and Washingtonians made the round trip on the steamer in order to enjoy the ride. All were pleased with the capacity, appointments and speed of the boat.

Charter.

The Corporarion Commission Saturday issued a charter to the Review Publishing Company. Incorporated: Principal office, Alexandria. Incorporators: Thos. C. Easterling, president; Jos. W. McCann, secretary; M. H. Ramage, treasurer, all of Washington. Capital stock: Maximum, $50,000, minimum, $5,000. Objects and purposes: To own and conduct a general newspaper and publishing business.

St. Asaph Abandoned.

The quartermaster's depot at St. Asaph is being abandoned, broken up, and nearly all the supplies there shipped to St. Louis and Jeffersonville, Ind. A small amount of the supplies will be stored in the old store houses at Fort Myer, to be abandoned by the Signal Corps this month, for emergency uses in and around army headquarters in Washington.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Lee Camp meets tonight.

It is now said that the new highway bridge over the Potomac river will be opened for the public about the first of the new year.

A report that the big marine railway at the shipyard was to be rebuilt is denied by the owners of the yard. The railway is already in good condition.

One of a bevy of boys who were playing on north Royal street, near King, last Saturday night ran into a wire which had been stretched across the new street work. The wire caught him in the neck and threw him violently on the vitrified brick roadway, rendering him unconscious. The youth was taken to Mr. W. F. Creighton's drug store where he later revived.

The westbound passenger train on the Manassas branch of the Southern Railway struck a flock of sheep in a cut near Strasburg last night and killed a number of them. The eastbound train later struck and killed three oxen near the same place.

The weather yesterday was mild with cloudy conditions in the afternoon. Early in the night there were light showers of rain, followed by others later. The weather became clear this afternoon with northwest winds.

Mr. John Taylor, living near Accotink, sent to an acquaintance in this city today a vegetable curiosity in the shape of a huge Irish potato with twelve tubers of different sizes growing from it.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held in Lee Camp Hall Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. A large attendance is requested.

Mrs. Mary J. Rose died in Washington on Saturday, aged 75 years. Her remains were brought here today for interment.

Alexandria Tent, K. O. T. M. will meet tonight.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

TO THE VOTERS.

Mr. J. Taylor Ellyson, chairman of the democratic State committee, has sent out a circular to the voters of Virginia, in which he says:

There has never been a day in Virginia since before the civil war when taxes on land were lower than they are today.

There has never been a day within that period when our schools were in better condition than they are now; nor a day when there were more children in the schools; nor a day when more money was appropriated for the cause of education. There has never been a day in all this time when life, liberty and property were safer than now, nor a day when a family could sit under its roof-tree with a serener sense of protection by law. The public credit of Virginia was never more firmly established. Our three per cent. bonds are selling about par.

It is an obvious and historical fact that all of these benign conditions have been brought about by the wisdom and patriotism of democratic measures. Peace reigns throughout the Commonwealth and high hopes for the future, well founded, fill the breast of our people.

Shall these conditions be rudely shaken? Shall the achievers and sponsors of these consummations be rebuked? Shall confidence and gratitude give place to cold-hearted experiments? Shall Virginia be again tossed upon the wave of crude and selfish political ambitions?

All of the departments of our State government, the executive, judicial and legislative, have been well administered. Delinquences have been rare and have been swiftly punished. That public office is a public trust has been exemplified as well as taught by our public officials. Dignity and decency have been respected, exemplified and enforced; and the Commonwealth of Virginia has been placed by wisdom, moderation and economy in the financial and physical conditions and in the frame of mind for the most stable progress and for the highest attainments.

We have in our treasury over and above our expenditures, $305,000 of money, which has accumulated by reason of judicious measures which the democratic party arranged and put in execution. With one hand it garnered this harvest, while with the other it lowered taxes on land. Under the new constitution the tax on real estate has been reduced 5 cents. The revenues since 1883 have increased $1,473,500. In 1883 the tax on railroads was $144,000; in 1904, $624,060. In that time taxes on telegraph and telephone lines have increased 1,000 per cent.; taxes on express companies nearly 1,500 per cent.; and subjects of taxation not taxed in 1883—such as steamboat companies, charters, franchise taxes, incomes—now bring into the State treasury $264,000 a year.

It might be rightly expected that with such fruits of its labors the democratic party would receive from the people of this Commonwealth at the coming election on the 7th of November the overwhelming majority of the suffrages of the people.

* * * * * * *

The republican party has tried its hand in every State of the South, and in each case with disastrous and degrading failure. It has had power twice in Virginia, and used it only to arouse the overwhelming indignation of the people.

An appeal to you to see that your vote and that of your neighbor is cast for the democratic ticket on next Tuesday, the 7th of November, is therefore made with confidence. "Let well enough alone" is a maxim of experience and wisdom. You have low taxes and high credit; you have respectablity and worth, learning and judgment in power. Our ticket gives assurance of their continuance. To defeat it would reverse the march of progress, and order to the rear the agencies which have been so notably exercised for the moral, educational and material betterment of the people.

Murder and Hold-ups in Norfolk.

One man murdered, another assaulted and wounded, and a third held up here last night on a crowded street are deeds which the Norfolk police are inclined to credit one lone highwayman, who is still at large.

Joseph Hewett, a farmer residing in the suburbs of Berkley, was found early yesterday morning just outside the door of the barn with his head crushed. He died without regaining consciousness.

A. Rosenbaum, one of Portsmouth's most prominent businesss men, was attacked yesterday morning as he entered the vestibule of his residence shortly after 1 o'clock, and was felled with a club by a masked man. Mr. Rosenbaum shouted for aid as he staggered to the middle of the street, with his assailant following him. Before a second blow could be struck Policeman Shannon responded to the call for aid and his assailant disappeared. The motive for the assault is unknown, as the lone highwayman did not demand money or attempt to secure it.

While the streets were crowded with people on their way to attend Sunday evening services last night a Mr. Page was held up by a lone highwayman in the heart of the city. The highwayman emerged from between two houses in Tazewell street and shoved a revolver under Mr. Page's nose. A cry for help and the prompt response of the police and many civilians prevented the accomplishment of the highwayman's purpose, and he disapperred, leaving no trace of his identity.

A LAXATIVE
Cough Syrup
THE NEW IDEA
THE ORIGINAL

The Red Clover Blossom and the Honey Bee on Every Bottle.
"A Cold or a Cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For the want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard."
KENNEDY'S LAXATIVE HONEY AND TAR
Cures Colds by working them out of the system through a copious action of the bowels.
Cures Coughs by cleansing and strengthening the mucous membranes of the throat, chest, lungs and bronchial tubes.
For Croup, Whooping Cough, La Grippe, Influenza, Bronchitis, and all Coughs, Colds, Lung and Bronchial affections no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Children like it.
Put up in 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottles at the Laboratory of E. O. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, U. S. A.

The Roman Bride Cake.

Bride cake is a relic of the Roman Confarreates, a mode of marriage practiced by the highest class in Rome. In Confarreation the bride was led to the altar by bachelors, but conducted home by married men, and the ceremony took place in the presence of ten witnesses by the Pontifex Maximus, whereupon the contracting parties mutually partook of a cake made of salt, water and flour. Only those who were born in such wedlock were eligible for the high sacred offices. But the custom of breaking a cake over the bride's head when she enters her husband's house is borrowed from the Greeks, who as an emblem of future plenty poured figs and other fruits over the heads of both bride and bridegroom.

Pockets In Their Cheeks.

Chipmunks, squirrels and ground squirrels take food in their mouths and with their tongues push it out between the teeth into an elastic pouch (connecting with the mouth), thus extending the cheeks. The pocket gophers have pockets outside the mouth along the front of the cheeks. These pockets extend back under the skin to the shoulders and are filled and emptied by the aid of the fore feet and claws. They are often stuffed so full of pieces of roots, stems and leaves as to give a very ludicrous appearance to the little animal. Roots and stems are cut into pieces about an inch long and packed lengthwise. Leaves are folded or rolled to fill the smallest space.—St. Nicholas.

Whittier's Good Wishes.

A young woman once sat at a boarding house table beside a reserved and awkward country boy whom she delighted to tease. When she left she asked him to write in her autograph album. The poem which John G. Whittier wrote there stands as a warning to other young ladies that she who laughs first at a seemingly dumb countryman may be herself laughed at many years later. The quaint concluding stanza is:

Thy life—may nothing vex it—
Thy years be not a few,
And at thy final exit
May the devil miss his due.

Water.

In consideration of the very important fact that three-fourths of the principal constituents of the body is water and that it is far more essential than food, how little heed is paid to the matter of its consumption and purity by the average person. One to two quarts of pure, cool water should be consumed daily by every one. "Eight full glasses of water daily should be taken throughout the day between meals," was the advice given by a noted physician in a lecture on dietetics.

Tombstone Advice.

On the tombstone of Richard Cutter and wife, who were buried in Hudson, N. H., in 1790 and 1788, is the following advice:

Watch ye that live, for ye don't know
How near ye are to death
Or what may give the fatal blow
To stop your fleeting breath.

Editing Under Difficulties.

Little Sister—Most of the articles in your paper this month is awful poor. Little Brother (editor Amateur Monthly)—I know it, but the boys that wrote 'em sent stamps for their return, and I needed the stamps.

A Bushel of Children.

Willie—I've been married five years and got a bushel of children. James—How's that? Willie—My name is Peck. I've got four children. Don't four pecks make a bushel?—New York Times.

A Doubtful Compliment.

Maud—What was it he said about me? May—He merely remarked that a woman is as old as she looks. Maud—The idea! How old does he think I am?

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

When you want a pleasant physic try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no griping or no unpleasant effect. Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Nature Needs But Little.

Nature needs only a Little Early Riser now and then to keep the bowels clean, the liver active, and the system free from bile, headaches, constipation, etc The famous little "Early Risers" are pleasant in effect [illegible] action. They never gripe or [illegible] one and strengthen the liver and [illegible] Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., [illegible]

OVER SIXTY YEARS.
AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

A Liquid Cough Cure.
A Cough Syrup which drives a cold out of the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels is offered in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Clears the throat, strengthens the lungs and bronchial tubes. The mother's friend and the children's favorite. Best for Croup, Whooping-Cough, etc. A liquid cold cure and the only Cough Syrup which moves the bowels and works cold out of the system. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.
